Rev. Fr. Michael Pastrikos
St. Nicholas Church
520 South Ponca Street
Baltimore, MD 21224

Dear Father Michael,

We pray that you are doing well and staying safe during these difficult times.

Leadership 100 is grateful for your support of our annual observances of National Leadership 100 Sunday, which began in 2009. This year, the twelfth observance, has been designated for October 25, 2020 by His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros, on behalf of the Holy Eparchial Synod, the Sunday nearest to the Feast of Saint Iakovos on October 23.

An Encyclical by His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros, on behalf of the Holy Eparchial Synod, will be issued for the purpose of being read in each parish. In addition, we enclose an insert brochure for use in your Sunday bulletin. Due to the pandemic, we do not suggest a coffee hour program hosted by our members. A press release will be sent to all Clergy, Leadership 100 members and media.

We have communicated with all the Metropolitans regarding the objectives of National Leadership 100 Sunday, which are to promote the mission of Leadership 100, to support the ministries of our Church, and to encourage those who may consider joining Leadership 100.

We deeply appreciate your support in promoting the vital mission that Leadership 100 undertakes in support of the National and Metropolis Ministries and institutions of our Church, including Holy Cross School of Theology. We continue to look to you to provide the spiritual guidance and pastoral leadership that makes all things possible for our Church, our Faithful and our Community.

We pray for your good health and happiness as you continue in your worthy ministry to our beloved Church.

With Respect and Christian love,

Argyris Vassiliou
Chairman
